POOR PITCHING LOSES THE GAME FOR

Salt Lake, May 9.-Dawson for Murray and Morgan for the Skyscrapers started the game on the mound yesterday, but neither lasted. Knapp finished the game for Salt Lake, while Sharon followed Dawson. But he followed so fast that the fans could hardly see him, Mickey Shader then went to the mound and got away in pretty fair shape, although a little wild.

The Skyscrapers put away the game in the third. They scored one in the first on Hester's infield safety Caldwell's out and Huelsman's drive to left. In the third Potts walked. but was out at second on Hester's Then Caldwell lifted one into Carman's hands and the Moose dropped it. Here Huelsman was walked and the bases were loaded Blankenship lifted Dawson and sent in Lefty Sharon.

In about three minutes Sharon had everything gummed up and found himself out of the game. First Craig bunted down the third base line for a safety and Hester scored. Caldwell came in a moment later on the first of Sharon's two wild pitches. Then Davis bounced one to Changnon and Harry beaved it into the stands trying to catch Huelsman going home Craig followed in with the fourth run. Sharon lost another and Davis moved up to third and was squeezed in by Galena, when Sharon kicked his bunt.

This was enough for Blank and he lifted Sharon and sent in Shader. McClain hit a hot one to Ruegg, who fielded it, touched second and caught Mac before he could get to first, com-

REX AMES TOO MUCH CANNERS ON

Helena 4. Ogden 0. Rex Ames, Helena's cool-headed heaer, was the big show in yesterday afternoon's game and tucked away the first shutout of the season on the lo cal grounds, by consistent all-around good pitching and playing. The Can-ners touched him for eight singles and one two-bagger, but he pulled himself out of every hole be got in which was not many-twice with strikeouts and three times with assists. so clouted the ball twice and did not pass a man. On the other hand, Green, the Car ners' new moundsman, didn't seer able to locate the plate at all allowed six passes, had no strikeout and was touched for two two-bagger and eight singles. In fielding he ha one putout and two assists. A fac worth noticing about those six passe was that three of the recipients scored. And about those scores, it is worth while to note that Dean batter in three of them and made the other one himself, or rather was allowed to come in through an error by Dowling. That, in addition to the fact that both pitchers received splendid support, is brief story of the "Vigilantes" first ocal victory

'The details follow: With the bating order changed from the previous day, Daschbach was first up and went out, Jones to Woolums. Rader walked and stole second. McNeil flied to Dowling. Lussi walked and scored with Rader, on Dean's two-bagger. Gleason hit a fly into the sun garden and Ellis made a fine running catch, retiring the side.

Ellis singled and the Canners had hopes of a slaughter. Woolums sac-rificed and Ellis tried to make two bases, but died at third. Murphy singled and Jones went out at first.
In the second, Bogart flied to Cobb and Amsbry followed suit, to Murphy. Ames singled to left field and Ellis booted, the runner continuing on to second; Daschbach flied to Cobb.

For Ogden, Cobb sent an easy fly to Amsbry, Risberg fouled to McNeil, Dowling hit for two bases and Seabough went out, Amsbry to Lussi.

Rader startled the fans in the seventh by beating out a bunt. McNeil and Lussi went out, Dowling to Woolums and on the two plays Rader got to third. Dean then scored him with a two-bagger. Gleason walked and Bogart advanced him with a single and Amsbry flied to Risberg.

The Canners staged a double steal in their half, but Ames brought it to naught by a fine stop of Green's grounder. Cobb singled and was out at second, while Risberg reached first on a fielder's choice, McNeil to Ams-Dowling singled and Seabough Green went out at first, Ames to

Good fielding and throwing by Jones prevented a score in the first half of the eighth. Ames singled and was out at second on a fielder's choice, Jones to Dowling, while Daschbach reached first. Daschbach then stole second and was out at the plate on a fielder's choice, Jones to Seabough, Rader reaching first, Rader stole second and McNeil walked. Lussi flied to Cobb

In the second half, Ellis got a single and advanced on Woolums' out, Lussi unassisted. Murphy filed to Cobb and Jones fanned, the first strikeout of the day.

The first half of the final frame was brief: Dean, Gleason and Bogart going out on flies, to Murphy, Dowling and Ellis.

The Canners went into the last half lesperately. Cobb singled and went to third on a duplicate hit by Risberg. Ames steadied finely and struck Dowling out. Seabough reached first and Risberg was out at second on a fielder's choice. Knight then went to bat for Green and went out, Ames The box score:
